

19, Glen View
Suburban (Kilbuck)

June 21, 1921

Dear Professor,

I am sending you under a separate registered cover a recent publication of the Lahore Branch of the Ahmadiyya, also a small pamphlet recently issued by some of their opponents among the Ahli-i-Hadith. I am sending these at the request of Mr Woolner of Lahore, who was in his turn requested by Dr. Stein to get for you some recent publications of or about the Ahmadiyya.

Most of the literature issued by the sect, as no doubt you are aware, is in Urdu. Among their most important publications in English is a ~~recent~~ translation of the Koran, with footnotes, some pamphlets containing ~~some~~ essays and lectures by Khwaja Kamal-ud-Din of Woking <sup>(published in England)</sup> which could be had through Luzac, translation of a work by Mirza Asadullah Khan the founder of the sect and to be had of the same bookseller. The Review of Religion is their most important English periodical which is also published monthly in England and I believe any well-known Oriental bookseller there could supply it.

If you could kindly let me know definitely what books you wanted I would be glad to ~~order~~ get them for you. At present it is difficult for me to say what you have already ~~at~~ accessible on the subject.

In the meanwhile if I get <sup>any</sup> <sup>very recent and</sup> <sup>interesting</sup> things
I will secure it for you and send it.

1

Believe me, Dear Professor

Yours sincerely

Mohammed Shafi'

Professor of Arabic

in the Dargah

University

Lahore

Permanent address: